Nature of Allegation(s): I Karen Drummond woke up to get ready to go out and prepare for work, & noticed my tire very flat. I threw on old clothes, and got very scared, as I needed to get to work.

I'm a home health nurse and require my car to work. My tire was drivable, and I knew I would get to turn thumbs 1 mile away. So very slowly left my home going to get air right then, so could then make it to get tire plugged. I was nervous and only was thinking of getting air in my tire. I came to Sopchoppy and going about 5 miles an hour turned right (at 2 intersections) and went very slowly. Was scared to fully stop as my tire was losing air fast. I was just trying to get to Tanithumb. I saw blue lights and pulled over immediately.

Cop came up, was rude and said I was "endangering children in the neighborhood by driving like that." He was loud and I started to cry. He wanted license and registration and as I was looking I was shaking.

I was worried about tire and being pulled over. I had given him my license & forgot I was so scared. He barked

"I have it already, don't you remember? ARE you drunk lady?" I burst into tears again and explained I was nervous. Again he implied I had been drinking, or something to that effect, I think.

He went to car, wrote ticket & warning. He came back and by then (due to drunk comment) I was backing. He then told me "I could have killed a child at the stop sign with driving like that". I reminded him I was going 5 mph, (and of course it was Sunday morning, & no buses but I didn't say that to him, was just thinking that). Then he said →
